Why Should You Attend?

- ➔ Learning “how” is half the battle. This workshop is specifically designed to lead you step-by-step through the process of applying for Research and Development grants and contracts.
- ➔ All workshop participants will receive a binder with all materials presented at the workshop and will be eligible for a free review of a draft Phase 1 SBIR/STTR proposal any time within 1 year of the workshop date.
- ➔ The workshop agenda includes: an overview of recent changes to the SBIR/STTR programs, proposal strategies, drafting the Phase I proposal, reviewing and debriefing the Phase I proposal and critique of an actual SBIR proposal.

Jim Greenwood of Greenwood Consulting Group is a renowned SBIR/STTR trainer and consultant recognized for his ability to break down the “complexity” of the application process to practical steps to position potential applicants for successful proposals and awards.
